Cinderella at the Grave

10

(Cinderella exits before a tree filled with birds)

NARRATOR: Cinderella had planted a branch at the grave of her mother and she visited there so often, and wept so much, that her tears watered it until it had become a handsome tree. (Exits)

I've been good and I've been kind, Moch-er, Do-ing on - ly what I learned from you.

Why then am I left be - kind, Moch-er, Is there some-thing more that I should do? What is wrong with me, Moch-er? Some-thing must be wrong. I wish...

(Suddenly, the ghost of Cinderella's Mother appears visible to her.)

CINDERELLA'S MOTHER: What, child? Specify. Opportunity is not a lengthy visitor and good fortune, like bad, can befall when least expected.
